DEDICATION

Mr. Guy Fraiture

Mrs. Sydelle Brigman

Each year the seniors dedicate their yearbook to a member of the Prep Faculty or Staff whom they feel have contributed a great deal to the Prep community. The seniors chose this year's dedication based on the criteria of: personality, "Prep Pride," service to the school, and student rapport. The Graduating Class of 1983 has selected Mrs. Sydelle Brigman and Mr. Guy Fraiture.

Mrs. Sydelle Brigman has been the receptionist here at Prep for the past two and a half years and has contributed a great deal to the school. Mrs. Brigman is an important part of the staff and is extremely helpful to the students and faculty. She is a very caring and generous person, somewhat like a mother to the students. Mrs. Brigman's cheerful personality makes the students feel at home in her presence. She says "The job gets pretty hairy and nerveracking at times," but she always manages a big smile and is willing to help anyone in need of her services. We are grateful to have such a caring person as a member of the staff.

Mr. Fraiture is the outdoor and indoor Varsity Soccer Coach, the French teacher, and "A gentleman of the first order". He is one of the most helpful and dedicated faculty members at Prep. Mr. Fraiture's great personality is one of the many attributes which make him both a great teacher and a great coach. He keeps his students and players attentive at all times. Ever since Mr. Fraiture became a member of the faculty three years ago, the students and the teachers have looked up to him with great respect. Guy is always willing to help out anyone in need of his assistance. We are very grateful to have such a fine man here at Prep.

To these two people we offer our heartfelt thanks and prayers. Our years at Prep have been better for having met you.

Varsity Football — A Record Undeserved

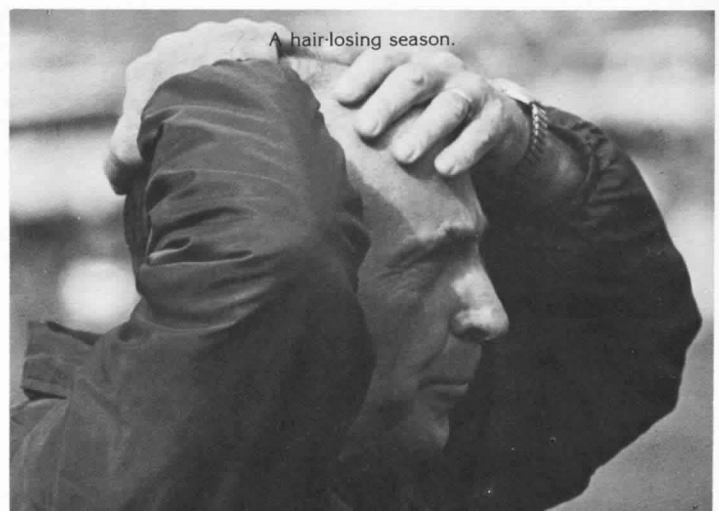

Front Row: B. Walsh, M. Judge, M. Colonna, S. Elliott, D. Kowalewski, Tri-Captain M. Fegan, Tri-Captain M. Quinn, Tri-Captain T. Finizio, J. Thompson, P. F. Fitzgerald, J. Hughes, M. Although there were high expectations for a winning season, 17 points kept the Little Hoyas from being undefeated. The season started with an easy victory over Wilson 23-0. The offense was led by Steve Clark, who scored two touchdowns. Against Episcopal, the offense continued to advance the ball. Q.B. Tobin Finizio and tight end J.C. delReal connected well before J.C. left with broken ribs. Fluke plays by Episcopal enabled them to upset Prep 20-17. Prep stunned Landon and broke their 13 game winning streak. In the fourth quarter, tailback Martin Sumichrast scored the winning touchdown with a three yard burst. Another key play was the game-saving interception by Pat Garrett.

After an easy victory over Bullis, perhaps the largest crowd in Prep history attended the Coupe-Kuzik bowl, the annual war with Gonzaga. Prep dominated throughout the game with inspiring defense led by Mike Walsh, Phil Merkle, and P.J. Smith. On offense, Matt Quinn outplayed Gonzaga's All-Met Edgar Davis. To add to the brilliant individual performances, Mark Colonna hit a Prep record 42 yard field goal. Gonzaga, though, got lucky in some untimely turnovers and squeaked by 13-9. Prep's anger from the previous game was bestowed upon Bishop Walsh in winning 24-12. Tobin passed for two TD passes to John Leasure and J.C. delReal while Martin Sumichrast ran for over 100 yards. Homecoming was spoiled when St. Albans edged Prep 24-21. Except for three long plays by the Bulldogs, the defense played admirably. The Hoyas then went on to meet city-ranked St. Stephens. Down 21-7 at halftime, Prep held Stephens scoreless in the second half and almost pulled off a victory. Steve Clark capped a fine performance with a 30 yard touchdown run. The team then entered the final game of the season. Substitute Mark Judge made two spectacular interceptions to halt Sidwell Friends' drives and Tim Gaudette and Mike Bidwell both scored to lead the Hoyas to victory.

Prep's 5-4 record does not show how close the games were. All four losses were within seven points. The defense produced All-IAC's Mike Walsh and Phil Merkle who led the team in tackles. Offensively, Mike Fegan and Matt Quinn headed the All-IAC list with Mark Colonna named as All-IAC kicker. Managers Greg Ellis and Brett Fishburne and their staff did a fine job for the team. Coaches Gilmore, Gleason, Shea and Whalen aided Head Coach Jim Fegan in producing this years Hoya football team.

Fierce J.V. Team Retains I.A.C. Title

The Georgetown Prep J.V. Football team romped to a 6 win, 1 loss, and 1 tie season this year. This incredible record, the best since 1970, enabled them to take their second I.A.C. championship in a row. Only Gonzaga kept Prep from an undefeated season. Coach Matt Whalen deserves much of the credit for a highly successful team. Coaches Shea and Silk should also be commended.

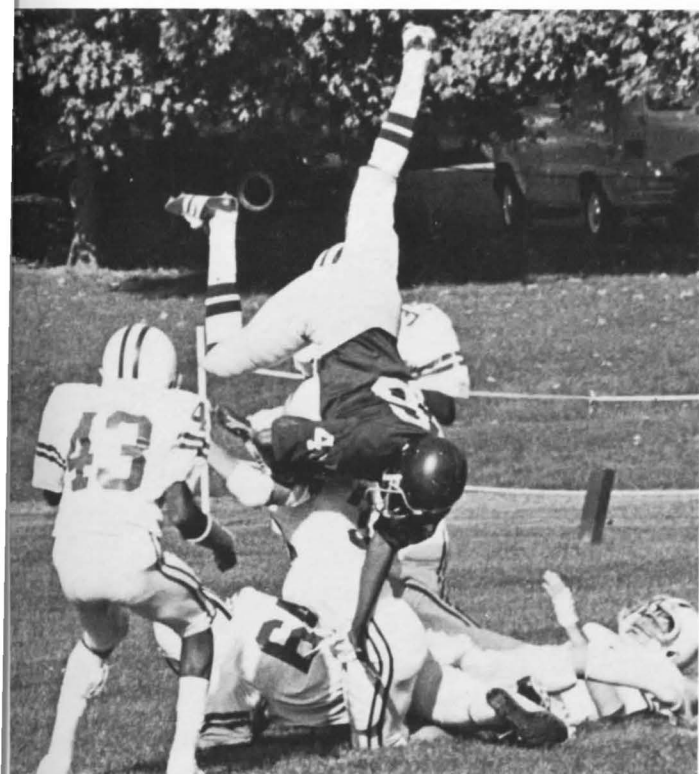

One reason for the team's victorious season was the large number of juniors participating on the team especially the strong offensive line, which was led by tri-captains Adrian Zic, Larry Anderson, and Brian Johnston on the right side, and a powerful left side was led by Pat Fitzgerald and Steve Dufour. This wall enabled running backs Eric Moreno and Mike Mahn to move the ball effectively on the ground. Quarterback Scott Farr performed well throwing short passes to Mahn and receiver Louis Jatta.

Perhaps the Little Hoyas most exciting game was against St. Albans, when Prep came back from a 7-0 deficit to score 27 points and come out victorious.

The team's defense was a powerhouse, holding Episcopal, Landon, and Mason scoreless. The defensive stars were LB Bill Romer, MG Pat Bidwell, T Pat Fitzgerald, and Ends Pat Beranek and Kevin Cusack. Combined with the impressive offense, the J.V. Squad of 1982 proved to be a power in the I.A.C., and many of the players will be back to lend their talents to next year's varsity.

The Freshmen football team had a disappointing season, but they still managed to defeat two opponents. Coach Kotter can be proud of the teams' effort.

One of the teams' strong points was the right side of the offensive line, anchored by co-captain Dave Rubino, who played center. Tackle Mike O'hara and guard Rocky Bonbrest were both effective. In the victory over Wakefield, the other captain Tim Kirlin scored one touchdown and Paul Beck ran for another to defeat the host team 14-13. Paul Colonna connected for both extra points. In the other win, Jeff Adams intercepted two passes, running one back for a touchdown. Paul Beck made a spectacular 95 yard run in the same game.

Despite a poor record, the team played better together during the late season. Hopefully, they will increase their abilities and add to Prep's success in the future.

Welcome back, Kotter.

The Georgetown Prep Cross Country team experienced a successful season, which was helped greatly by their intense running in large races. The Varsity, led by senior co-captain Harry Matternas and junior all-I.A.C. Walsh McGuire, were victorious in the Salesianum Invitational, where Harry set a course record in 16:35.9, and the Prep Classic, in which Matternas and McGuire finished 1-2. The team ran second in the Woodward Relays, the George Mason Invitational, the Metro Catholic Championship, and the I.A.C. Championship, and fourth in the Maryland State Catholic race. Several members of the team travelled to New York to compete in the National Jesuit High School Championship, in which they finished behind a 1-2 finish by Harry and Walsh and sophomore John Caldwell's eighth place. The rest of the Varsity, freshman Larry Elliot, juniors Kelley Stewart, Ed Keenan, Tom Fox, and seniors Jahn McGee, co-captain, Tim Sullivan, Frank Pimentel, Eric Harvey, and Matt Brown, produced well throughout the season.

The J.V. ran well in the large races also, winning the Salesianum and the I.A.C. Championships. The team was led by juniors Tim Dunsmore and Charlie Buckley, sophomores Dave Comerford and Kevin Stack, and freshman Holley.

Coach Mike Horsey, in his twelfth year as head coach, had this to say, "This was our best team in six years."

Mr. Bernie Ward, in his first year at Prep teaching and who served as assistant coach, said, "The season was very enjoyable. The team had good spirit which was evident throughout the season. There was a lot of improvement among the runners over the season." The team got a running start over the summer, when each member ran on their own. Late in August, the team ran to West Virginia.

Overall, the season was very successful due to the dedication and hard work of each member. Because of the large number of promising harriers, the team looks to be a contender for years to come.

Varsity Soccer — A Continuing Success

Front Row: M. Ayers, A. Lukic, M. Barros, M. Ortega, A. Calihanna, D. Flannery, E. Ayala, T. Scrivner; Back Row: Mgr. A. Flores, C. Lukic, B. Brewer, J. Conaghan, B. McCarthy, P. Murray, S. Doerk, Coach Guy Fraiture; Missing: Keith Moreno, Dave Barrueda, Bill "Boo-Boo" Bradley.

Despite their overall record of 6-3-1, this year's soccer team, coached by Guy Fraiture, had a good season. The team practiced hard and played well together. This year's team was very young, consisting of three freshmen, five sophomores, three juniors, and six seniors.

The "Little Hoyas" opened their season with a loss in a non-league game to Gonzaga but sought revenge by beating Wilson, last year's Interhigh Champs, 2-0. They then defeated Bullis 1-0 in their first I.A.C. game and then went on to beat Sidwell Friends 2-1. The team lost its first league game in sudden death overtime to Episcopal 0-1 and then fought St. Alban's to a 1-1 tie. Their next opponent was Landon who beat the "Little Hoyas" 2-0, but the team quickly bounced back to hand St. Stephens their first loss beating the Saints 2-0. The most surprising loss of the year came when Bullis beat Prep 1-0. The team remained in contention for the I.A.C. title by winning over Friends 2-1. Next, Prep played Bishop Ireton, a well-known team from Virginia, who played Prep to tie 1-1 in what Guy said was their best game of the year. Their next league victim was Episcopal who beat the team 2-1 in overtime. The "Little Hoyas," however, went to lose their next two games to St. Albans 1-0 and to Landon 2-1. Prep's last game of the regular season decided their overall league standing for the 1982 Fall Season. The team battled to a 1-1 tie in the pouring rain with St. Stephens and finished the season tied for third place with St. Albans.

Mr. Fraiture said that this year's team played very well together and that they "won as a team and lost as a team." Two sophomores Mario Ortega and Tom Scrivner were honored as All-I.A.C. but their outstanding performances were made possible by the help of their teammates. The team will lose only six seniors: Bernie McCarthy, Paul "Disco" Murray, Eddie Ayala, Carlos Lukic, Bill Bradley, and Joe Conaghan. The "Little Hoyas" should have an outstanding team next year.

Fine Season for J.V. Soccer

The 1982 fall J.V. soccer team finished with a 5 win and 3 loss season, defeating all I.A.C. opponents at least once. New coach David Haughton was pleased with the team's performance. Although most of the players had never competed together, the team showed good organization and ball control from the start.

Left wing John McGuire led the team in scoring with eight goals. Center forward Tim Mackey contributed seven, including a hat trick in the opener against Sidwell Friends. After shutting out Episcopal 3-0, the team lost a well-played match to St. Albans in overtime 2-1. The next contest resulted in the complete dominance of Bullis in a 6-0 victory. Following a loss to Episcopal, the team avenged the defeat by outscoring Albans 3-0. In their only non-league game, Prep lost to Ireton 3-1. The season ended on a high note with a second win over Bullis, 4-1.

The J.V.'s defense was superb. The fullbacks, led by co-captain Matt Battiatia, allowed very few shots on goal. Goalie Tim Light, the other captain, had three shutouts. Only ten goals were scored against the team the entire season. They finished with a league record of 5-2. They deserve to be commended for a fine season.

Even Season For Hoyas

Kneeling: G. "Let it ride" Steis, N.W. McCarthy, J. "Breadtruck" Leasure, B. Kavanaugh (captain), B. Brewer, B. "Flea" Gildea, S. Murphy, Standing: B. Mitchell, Gulliver Matonis, B. "Smiley" Sullivan, R. Holtz, E. Mitchell, B. Johnston, Coach Franny Gleason.

This year's varsity basketball team, although foiled in its attempt for the I.A.C. championship, improved greatly from a year ago.

The team started fast, winning three of its first four games. During the Bullis tournament, the team shredded Sidwell Friends before losing a tough rematch with Gonzaga. As the team entered its I.A.C. schedule, there were high hopes for a championship to give Prep for the first time in four years. The key to victory would be four games against St. Albans and St. Stephens. Unfortunately, the team barely lost in each of the four games by a total of nineteen points. The little Hoyas were forced to settle for another year without a league title.

The team this year was led by captain Brett Kavanaugh, along with teammates Ricky Holtz, Brian Sullivan, "No Way" McCarthy, Eric and Byron Mitchell, Brian Johnston, and Brian Brewer. These eight players led the team throughout the season. Rounding out the rest of the team were Chris "Gulliver" Matonis, John Leasure, Bill Gildea, and Sean Murphy. Greg Steis had earlier decided that a trip to Milwaukee would be nice, and accordingly left the team.

The St. Stephen's tournament was the end of the season. The Little Hoyas beat Episcopal at the buzzer in the first round, which was gratifying after a loss to Episcopal in the same way earlier in the season. In the second round, Prep blew a thirteen point lead and a chance at playing tourney favorite Gonzaga by losing to O'Connell by two. Prep had to settle for third place by easily beating St. Albans. After all games were played, the Little Hoyas record was 11-12.

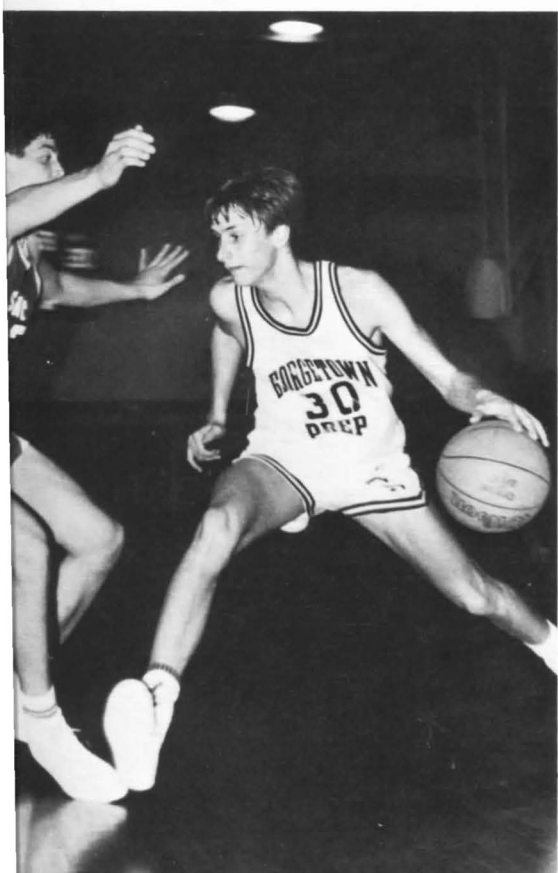

A word of thanks to ffffans and parents who took time to support the Little Hoyas. Thanks also to coaches Franny Gleason, Dave Mulquin, Kevin Dowd, and Joe Scanlon for all they did throughout the season.

The J.V. Basketball team had a fantastic season, winning the I.A.C. championship. This was Prep's second consecutive I.A.C. championship in ten years. Their final I.A.C. record was 9-3, and they defeated all league opponents at least once. Coach Kevin Dowd can be proud of his team's record.

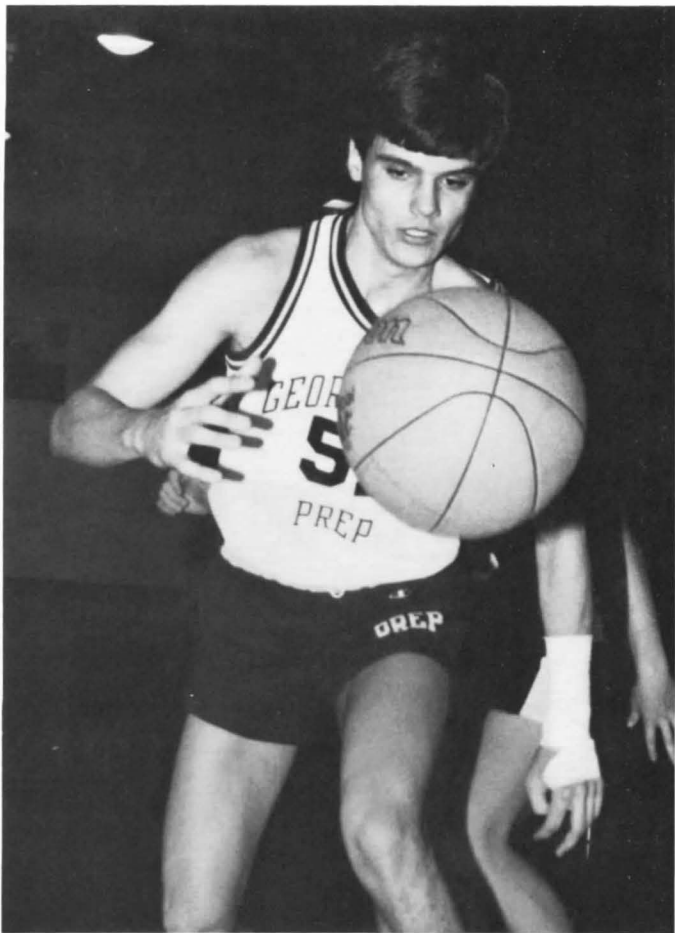

The team was led by the strong play of juniors Doug Olsen and Jim Keeley on the front line. They were the leading scorers. Point Guard Mario Ortega and wings Scott Farr and Keith Marino completed the starting lineup. Tom Bednarz and Louis Jatta also contributed to many of the teams wins. One of the Little Hoya's greatest achievements was defeating Episcopal, Bishop Ireton, and St. Stephens in away games. This was the first time a Prep J.V. has beaten all three schools on the road during one season. Doug Olsen scored 48 points in the three games. The team also beat Sidwell Friends 68-47 with 62% shooting. Coach Dowd and all the players deserve to be congratulated on this fine championship season.

The Freshman Basketball team had a successful season, finishing second in the I.A.C. with a record of 6-4. Their overall record was 7 wins and 8 losses. Mr. Scanlon, the coach, is to be congratulated for his inspirational leadership and coaching.

Several starting lineups were used during the season. At the end of the season, Mike O'Hara played center and Tim Kirlin played forward along with Mark Fitzpatrick. David Gildea and Mike Barros started in the backcourt. Paul Beck, Jim Moore, and Paul Joseph had previously been starters. One of the teams most impressive victories was over Bullis, 54-28 with Mike Barros scoring 16. Although the Freshmen team didn't win the championship, they have the potential to win the I.A.C. as J.V. players next year.

Hoyas Wrestle with Tough Season

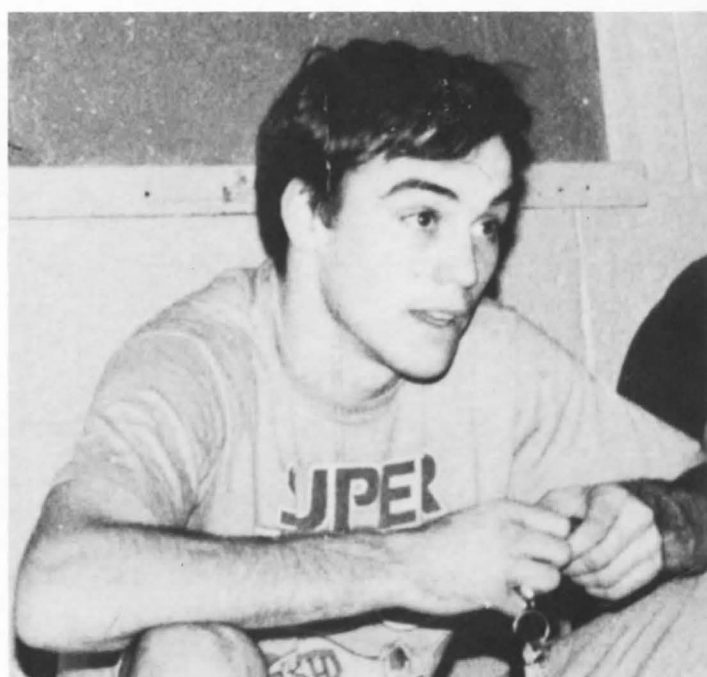

Kneeling — G. Gancayco, C. Kazanas, B. McCollough, B. Babbot, L. Chen. Standing — M. Quinn, P. "Yea boy" Merkle, S. Latimer, C. Paglee, Coach Sean Harrigan, P. Fitzgerald, B. Bastian, P. Fitzgerald.

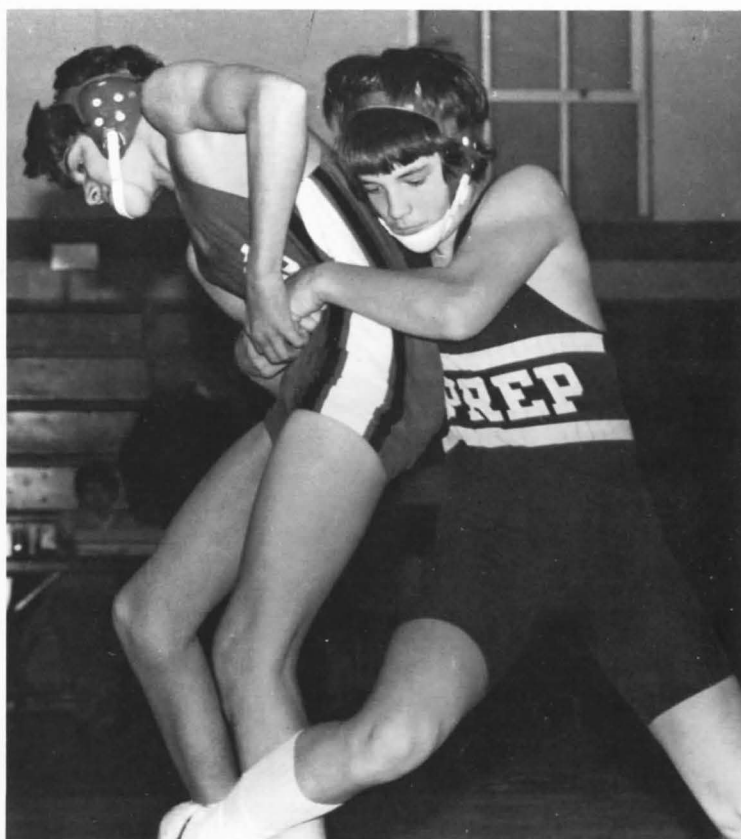

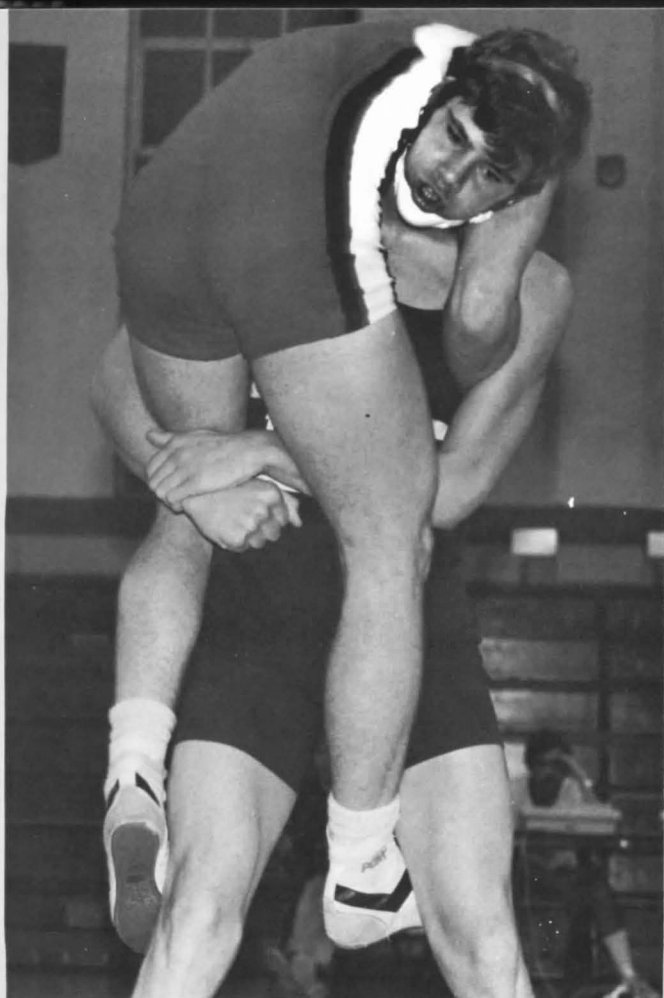

This year's Hoya Wrestling team had it's share of problems, but managed to hold its own under the leadership of all — I.A.C. wrestler Phil Merkle. While lack of participation brought the Little Hoyas problems, the team displayed many valiant efforts and an awesome 20-1 solo record by Phil Merkle.

Coach Harrigan, the youngest coach in the league, provided the leadership, skill, and know-how necessary for a winning team, but once again the lack of participation held back the Hoyas from gaining any significant ground.

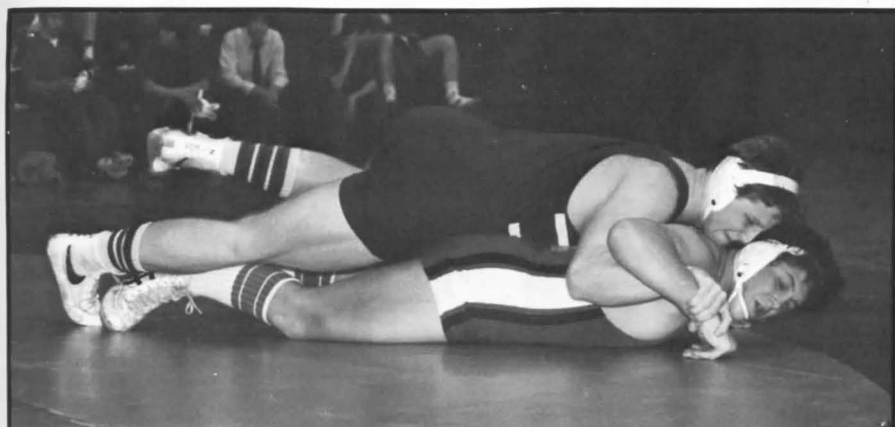

At the end of their season, the Little Hoyas competed with drive and determination in the St. Albans tournament, but came up short. They hope to improve their record next year.

Lack of Swimmers Drowns Hoyas

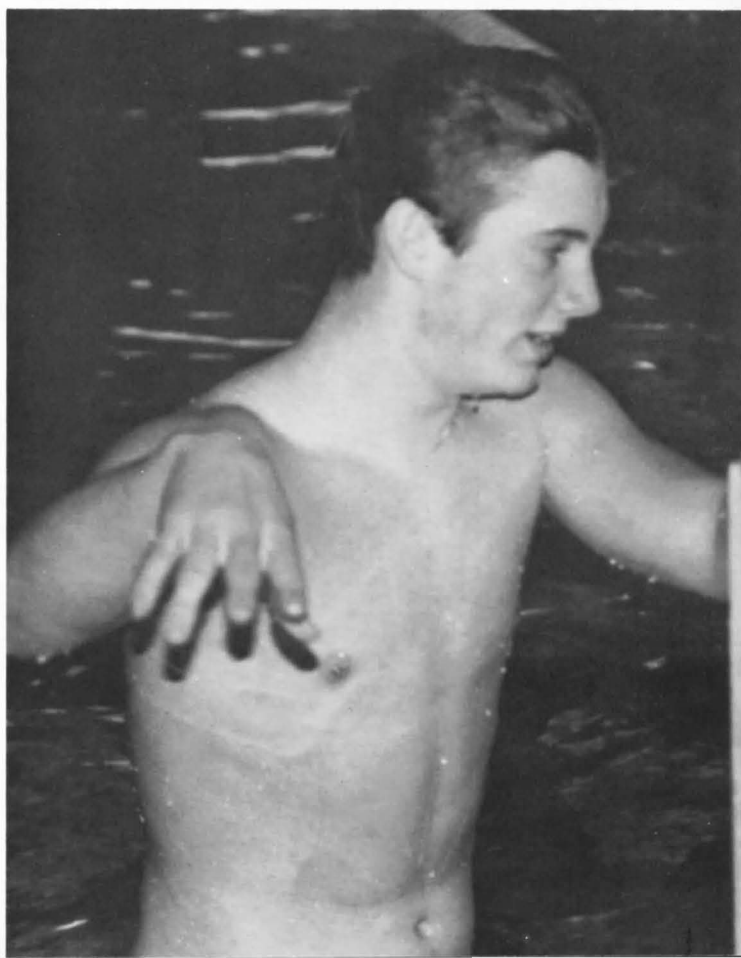

All I.A.C. Rick Schoeb

The Aqua Hoyas opened their season with dismal prospects of attaining a respectable record. Most of the team's frontline swimmers from the previous year were gone, and not many people came out to participate in this year's team. The season did have some highlights — such as Ricky Schoeb's 8 record breaking swims, a feat which will be difficult to surpass. It was hoped that some year round swimmers — Kelly Stewart, Charlie Mess, Ricky Schoeb — who swim for the area swim clubs would compensate for the lack of swimmers along with strong returnees Larry Anderson, John Schoeb, and Reilly Dolan.

The team finished with a 0-6-1 record. Noteworthy performances were displayed by freshmen Matt Battata and Craig Bulhulman. Sophomores Dan Piliero and junior Craig Miller also contributed. Another important aspect of the Aqua Hoyas was diving. Sophomore Tim Light and Junior Bill Codus gave the Aqua Hoyas many needed points to stay within close competition in many meets.

The Aqua Hoyas had a struggling year. But hopefully under the guidance of 3rd year Head Coach Rick Curl, the Aqua Hoyas will rebound and manage a winning season next year.

Mr. Bill Macatee S.J. — Moderator

This yearbook, in my opinion, is one of the greatest efforts ever at Prep. Immense work was done to accomplish this. All staff members should be praised. The 1983 staff was the most inexperienced ever, with only two returning members. The new recruits learned a lot over the course of the year to become competent staff members.

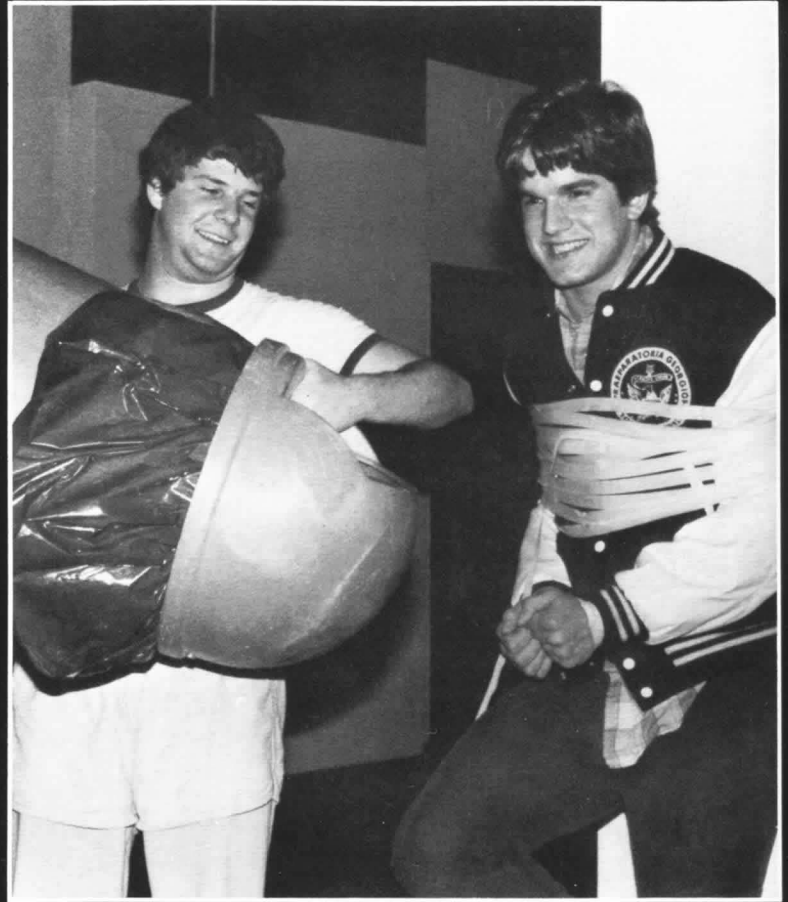

First, Craig Thompson dedicated a great amount of time and effort to the book. He didn't mind filing negatives, developing, or taking endless photos. Also, Steve Ward and Chris Ryan helped a great deal with the pictures. Photo Editor Andrew Leung, though lacking in time because of other commitments, organized well and got me the needed pictures. Layout Editor Stephen Hull added a great deal of creativity to the book with his designs. He performed any task asked of him. Juan Kreutz also aided in the layouts, especially the senior pages. Mark Judge, an individual with a great ability to think of hilarious captions, gave many hours pondering over pictures to make the book more enjoyable, along with Brooke Beyer. In addition, Mark also typed a few pages. Greg Steis, whose "Let it ride" slogan carried him through the year, produced a great amount of money and worries from our moderator. Copy was done by Takashi Asakai, Adrian Zic, and Tim Giere. The sometimes overzealous and cautious moderator Mr. Bill Macatee did a great job of censoring our original pictures and captions. He was a plus, though, when it came to sending out letters for contributions.

The Class of '83

As we stand here right now, seniors at last
We must take time out to review our past.

It started way back when we took that big step
We left the eighth grade and entered the Prep.

We were only "mere freshmen", astounded with fear
Too young to have fun and too young to drink beer.

So here we were at G.P. with so much to prove
Our social lives faltered, but things would improve.

When we became sophomores,
though our grades took a dive
We shared some good times with the man from B-5.

His name it was Daum, and somehow it did seem
He was part of our class, he was part of our team.

We met Screwtape that year; he put on a good show
From the look on his face to
to the tapes of Devo,

When we came back that fall, we were juniors you know
We had made it this far, only two years to go.

Some things were the same, but nothing was finer Than Chemistry class with our dear Phillip Shreiner.

And what would this be, if amidst all our jokes
We neglected to mention our pal
Steven Ochs.

But September appeared, and so did we
And thus we became the class of '83.

We were shafted of course, but that didn't matter
We had fun on the weekends watching guts grow fatter.

Now we go our own ways; we are part of the past
But our memories of Prep will forever last.

Eldorado
Gaily bedight,
A gallant knight,
In sunshine and in shadow,
Had journeyed long,
Singing a song
In search of Eldorado.

But he grew old —
This knight so bold —
And o'er his heart a shadow
Fell as he found
No spot of ground
That looked like Eldorado.

And, as his strength
Failed him at length,
He met a pilgrim shadow —
"Shadow," said he,
"where can it be —
This land of Eldorado?"

"Over the mountains
Of the moon,
Down the valley of the shadow,
Ride bodily, ride,"
The shade replied —
If you seek for Eldorado."

What Matters

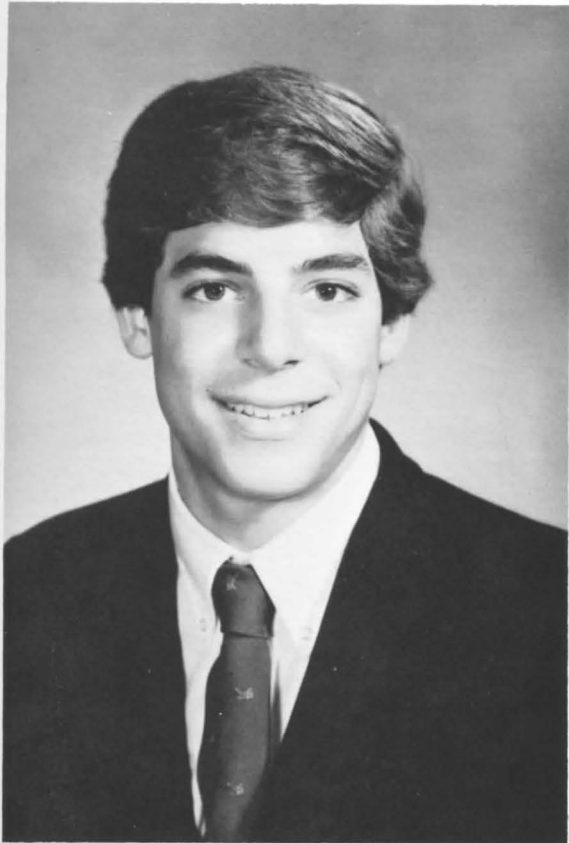

My mother says she does not care
About the color of my hair,
Nor if my eyes be blue or brown
Nor if my nose turns up or down —
It really does not matter.

And my mother says she does not care
If I am dark or if I'm fair,
Or if I'm thin, or if I'm fat;
She does not fret o'er things like that —
It really does not matter.

But if I cheat or tell a lie
Or say mean things to make folks cry,
Or if I'm rude or impolite;
And do not try to do the right,
Then that does really matter!

It isn't looks that make one great,
But character that seals your fate.
It's what's within your heart, you see
That makes or mars your destiny,
And that does really matter!

Dreams to that far land go
Straight arrows from warped bows
Will they be? We never know.

Man's dreams are his great delight
Man's dreams give him sight
Sight into the higher realms
With the fervent fury of the long hard fight
We all struggle to stand upright.

Shall hold our dreams from flying higher

Some men tell me I am childish;
Well, it may be true.
Most men are living their lives and
Going to great feasts;
Busy living their lives and waiting for a
Rare holiday.
Well, to me, my whole life is a holiday.
Most men spend their lives making profits
And gaining possessions;
I don't worry about possessions or profits.

Most men are clever and confident;
I often seem to wonder in a daze.
Most men are concerned with success and position;
While I am a fool who doesn't worry about those Things.
Indeed, I am different from most men.
I am a child.
Or, at least, I am happy as a child.

Success is getting what you want;
happiness is wanting what you get.

Father, you dropped your yard stick.

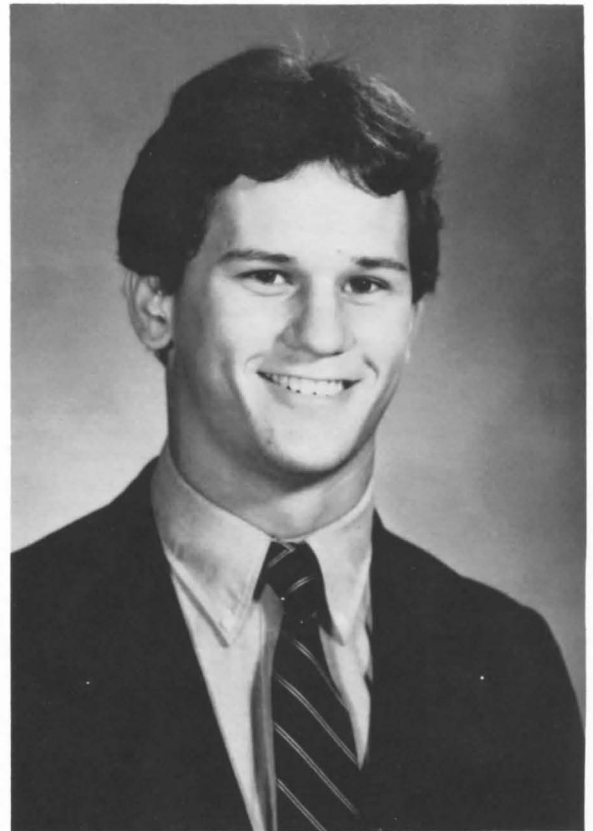

Where is the house?

I don't need no arms around me.
I don't need no drugs to calm be.
I have seen the writing on the wall,
Don't think I need anything at all.
All in all it was all just bricks in the wall.
All in all you were all just bricks in the wall. — P. Floyd

After awhile, you can work on points for style
Like the club tie, the firm handshake
Sudden look in the eye and that easy smile
You've got to be trusted, by the people that
You lied to, So when they turn their backs on you,
You get the chance to put the knife in them.

To all my friends.
You know who you are.
I thank you for laughing with me, getting —
With me and letting me be me. Cuz of you I'm still sane.
God, I'm going to miss you all.
